

House Resolution No.

Whereas, Max D. Wagner of Nevada, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction while serving with Company D, 1st Battalion, 135th Aviation at Whiteman Air Force Base, a patriotic endeavor from which he will retire on February 20, 2004, after twenty-eight years of service; and

Whereas, currently a Platoon Sergeant, Max Wagner previously held the billets of Light Wheel Vehicle Mechanic and Aircraft Powertrain Repairer with assignments to Company A of the 735th Support Battalion in Nevada from February 20, 1976, to December 3, 1987, and the 1107th AVCRAD of Springfield from December 4, 1987, to March 21, 1999; and

Whereas, Platoon Sergeant Max Wagner brought to his military career a wealth of experience and knowledge which he garnered from his employment at Minnisotta, Mining and Manufacturing (3M) in the graphic arts department for twenty-one years; and

Whereas, in addition to earning an excellent reputation as a member of Pine Street Baptist Church in Nevada, Platoon Sergeant Max Wagner is proud to be known as the loving husband of Donna J. Wagner and the wonderful father of three daughters, Jennifer L. Fricks, Jessica E. Wagner, and Jamie A. Wagner; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses in its diverse legislative endeavor in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such illustrative citizens as Platoon Sergeant Max Wagner of Nevada:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to salute Platoon Sergeant Max Wagner of Company D, 1st Battalion, 135th Aviation at Whiteman Air Force Base and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Max D. Wagner of Nevada, Missouri.
